No.2448/A-2/39,dated 23rd April 1940.

Sir,

SUB: Audit - Central Jail,Bellary - Security Deposit of ex-Store Keeper R.Govinda Rao of the old Alipuram Jail,Bellary.

I have to report that the security deposit savings Bank Pass Book No.28065 of the ex-Store Keeper, R.Gominda Rao, pledged to the Superintendent, Alipuram Jail, Bellary has been lying undisposed of at the Central Jail, Bellary since a long time. The pledge is for a total sum of Rs.250/- (which is the prescribed limit for a lower division clerk). The store-keeper was paying his security deposit in monthly instalments as required by Rule 144, Jail Manual, Part II. The amount at credit on 22-5-1930 was Rs.197-9-8. The amount at credit on 1-4-1932 was Rs.215-14-0 when the Post Office treated it as dead account in the absence of further deposits for more than 4 years. The account has been revived since and the amount at credit on 1-4-1940 inclusive of interest is Rs.254-10-5.

2. In this connection, I invite a reference to the Government Order No.2045 Ms.,Law(General),dated 14-7-1934. The Government sanctioned the waiver of the recovery of the balance of Rs.9532-6-10 from the ex-store-keeper, R.Gominda Rao of the old Alipuram Jail, Bellary, decreed by the District Judge of Bellary on the ground that it was not possible to make further recovery from the party. The existence of the security amount pledged to the Superintendent, Alipuram Jail, Bellary appears to have been lost sight of.

3. I request orders of Government authorizing the Superintendent, Central Jail, Bellary, the custodian of the records of the old Alipuram Jail, Bellary to withdraw only the sum of Rs.250/-, that is the total amount for which the account stands pledged to the Superintendent. The amount, if ordered to be withdrawn will be credited to Government towards the decree amount under 'XXII Jails and Convict Settlements - Jails - Miscellaneous". I may state that the Postal authorities may not allow the jail to withdraw the amount in excess of the pledged amount of Rs.250/-.

Jails. Old Aliparam jail, Bellary - R. Govinda Rao, an ex-storekeep - Security deposit.

I am directed to address you on the subject of the withdrawal of a sum of Rs 250/- (rupees two hundred and fifty) out of the amount standing to the credit of one R. Govinda Rao in the Post Office Savings Bank. His pass book no. 28065 is enclosed for reference and return. ~~In this connection I am to submit the following particulars.~~

R. Govindu Rao was a storekeeper in the old Aliparam jail, Bellary. He executed a security bond for Rs 250/- indemnifying the Govt. against all loss and damage of the property of the Govt. left in his charge. The security was deducted from his monthly instalment at 10 % ~~of his pay~~ and the amount was deposited in the Post office Savings account. ~~The Court also~~ The pass book was mortgaged to the Supdt. of the jail.

Owing to certain irregularities in the jail leading to a shortage of raw and manufactured articles to the value of Rs 8645-15-8, the Storekeeper was dismissed from service. A decree for his amount was passed by the Dt. Judge, Bellary; but only a sum of Rs 38-10-3 was realised by the sale of the property of Garib Rao, and recovery of the balance was waived by the Govt. The fact that there was a security deposit pledged to the Supt. of the jail was lost sight of at the time.

After his dismissal, the Savings Bank account became a dead account and it has been revived. The amount standing to his credit on 1.4.40 was Rs 254-10-5

The old Alipuram jail, Bellary, was abolished on 1.4.32 and the records of that jail were transferred to the Central jail, Bellary. ~~The records~~ The original bond executed by the ex. Storekeeper ~~was found~~ is cannot be traced. A copy of the form of bond is enclosed for reference. missing. It is proposed to authorise the Supdt, Central Jail, Bellary, who is now the custodian of the records of the old Alipuram Jail, to withdraw the security amount of Rs 250/- and credit it to Govt. ~~towards the loss of Rs 8645-15-8~~.

2. In the circumstances explained above, I am to request you to be so good as ~~kind enough~~ to issue instructions to the Postal authorities Concerned permitting the withdrawal of the amount by the Dist Govt Central, Bellary.

Jails - Central Jail, Bellary - Security deposit of ex-store keeper, R.Govinda Rao of the old Alipuram Jail, Bellary.

C.No.12619 C. From the I.G. of Prisons, 2448/A.2/39 dated 23.4.40.

R. Govinda Rao was a store-keeper (Jt. L.D. clerk) in the old Alipuram Jail, Bellary. In connection with certain irregularities noticed in the jail, leading to shortage of raw materials and manufactured articles, an enquiry was held and the store-keeper was dismissed from service. A civil suit was filed against him to recover the value of shortages. The Dt. Judge, Bellary passed a decree against him for the recovery of Rs.9571-1-1, Rs.8445-15-9 towards damages equivalent in value of the articles which were found missing and Rs.1115-1-5 towards the cost of the suit. Reference is invited to G.O.2045, L.G. dated 14.7.34 and the notes on pp.181-185 of that G.O. Govindarao evaded execution proceedings and at last filed an insolvency petition. His property was sold and a sum of Rs.38.10.3 was realised. The recovery of the balance of Rs.9532-6-10 was waived.

2. It is now reported that the ex-store-keeper furnished security with reference to rules 143-144 of the P.&.R. Manual and that the security was deducted from his pay in monthly instalments at 10 per cent of his pay. The security that was recoverable from him with reference to his pay was Rs.250. At the time he was dismissed, this amount does not appear to have been reached. After the store-keeper's dismissal, the savings bank book which was pledged to the Supdt. became a dead account. It seems to have been revived recently and the amount at credit on 1.4.40 is Rs.254-10-5. The fact that there was a security deposit pledged to the Supdt. escaped the notice of the jail authorities at the time the question of recovery from the store-keeper of the loss caused to Govt. was under consideration. The Alipuram jail was abolished on 1.4.1932. The records of that jail are now in the custody of the Supdt. of the Central Jail, Bellary.

3. The I.G. has now requested that the Supdt. of the C.J., Bellary should be authorised to withdraw from the savings bank account referred to, a sum of Rs.250/-, that is the total amount for which the account stands pledged to the Supdt. and that the amount shall be credited to the Jails budget. The proposal to draw Rs.250/- from the savings bank account and credited to Govt. is not open to any objection. It is however, doubtful whether the postal authorities will agree to the amount being drawn by the Supdt. who is not the same as the one to whom the security deposit in the pass-book was pledged and that too without the consent of the depositor. Before the Govt. order sanctioning the withdrawal of the amount, it seems desirable to get the original security bond executed by the ex-storekeeper to see whether it will be legally possible for the Govt. to issue such orders. A draft memo. is submitted.

(G) The D.G has sent the saving bank pass book of the late ~~clerk~~ Storekeeper Jarinda Rao. He has stated that the original security bond executed by Jarinda Rao is not available. The bond would have been executed in Form no 48-C printed on pp CLXXIII – CLXXV of the SW Civil Manual. It will be seen that 10 per cent of the ex-Storekeeper's salary was deducted (until the amount so deposited reached the sum of Rs 250/-) "for the purpose of in part securing and indemnifying the said Secretary of State in Council, his successors and assigns against all loss and damage which he or they might or may in any way suffer by reason of the said property or any part or parts thereof being in any way consumed, wasted, embezzled, stolen, misspent, lost, misapplied or otherwise dishonestly, negligently or by or through oversight or violence made away or parted with by himself or any person acting for him".

The concluding paragraph of the bond provides that in the event of the death of the principal (the ex-Storekeeper in this case) or vacation by him of his office, the cash security shall be retained and remain with H

Sub for the term of 6 months after the date of such death or such vacation as security against any loss or damage that might have been incurred. The ex-Postmaster does not appear to have claimed the refund of his security money at any time. He was evading Court processes which were aimed at executing the Court's decree against him. Since it appears that the postal authorities will be agreeable to the refund of a sum of Rs 250/- in circumstances are explained Mam notwithstanding the loss of the original bond. For orders whether the Post master General may be addressed in the matter and be requested to permit the Superintendent Bellary to withdraw a sum of Rs 250/- from the S.B. account in Guntakal.

The facts of the case are explained in full in the note of the Home Dept. on pp 1-4 ante and the proposal of Home is to address the Postal authorities for the withdrawal of the sum of Rs 250/- being the security deposit of T. Govinda Rao ex-store-keeper.

p 4 ante

2 The point for consideration is whether the course suggested by Home can be resorted to. Under Art. 81 of M.F. & A.C. Vol I, security deposits shall be retained for at least six months from the date of vacation of office by the Govt. servant who deposited the security; but the security bond should be retained permanently or until it is certain that there is no further necessity for keeping it. In the present case the bond is missing and the deposit amount has not been claimed within six months. The security was furnished for indemnifying the Govt. against all loss. The Govt. have sustained heavy loss through the store-keeper and the security deposit can be forfeited, therefore, be proceeded against for the recovery of the loss. In the circumstances, there is no objection to the proposal of Home

The bond contains an express provision giving full power to the Secretary of State in Council and his successors or assigns or his or their officers or servants duly authorised in that behalf, to apply the sum in the post office savings bank account, together with any interest receivable or received in respect thereof, in and towards the indemnity furnished by the bond. The Government have therefore power to apply the sum towards the indemnity straightaway and without recourse to any legal proceedings. It is true that a decree was obtained against the defaulter in respect of the loss caused by him, but the right conferred by the indemnity bond could have been enforced even without a suit and this right cannot be taken away merely by reason of the passing of a decree. If however the Government exercise the rights conferred on them by the indemnity bond and recoup themselves, the decree obtained by them should be deemed to have been satisfied to the extent to which the Government so recoup themselves, and it will be the duty of the Government to bring the facts to the notice of the Court and enter such satisfaction. The decree in this case has however become barred by limitation as no steps have been taken to execute it since the year 1934 when the amount due under it was written off as irrecoverable. No question therefore arises here of entering partial satisfaction of the decree. There is no legal objection to the Government addressing the Postmaster-General and asking him to permit the withdrawal of a sum of Rs. 250/- from the saving bank account. The Government may, if the Postmaster-General so desires, undertake to indemnify him against all the consequences of such authorisation. It is not unlikely that the P.M.G. will ask for such an indemnity in this case, as the original indemnity bond executed by Govinda Rao is not available now.
